

Charles "Charlie Brown" Reubush

May 19, 1965 - February 19, 2003

02/23/2003

The Austin American-Statesman

Charlie was a talented artist who enjoyed caving, climbing and time spent at the San Marcos River. He was a champion of the underdog and tried, throughout his life, to help others in pain. Charlie will be remembered by those who loved him as a gentle, generous and kind soul, with a curiosity and thoughtfulness about all he saw around him. Charlie leaves behind his daughter, Kara Posso; parents, Harry and Judy Reubush; sisters, Leigh Holt, Suzanne Birchard and Lori McNabb; and many relatives and friends, one of whom, Debbi Bennett, was very special to him. There will be an informal memorial service on Monday, February 24, at 4:00 p.m. at Bicentennial Park (209 S. C.M. Allen, San Marcos).

Memorial donations may be made to San Marcos River Foundation, Box 1393, San Marcos, TX 78667. 20
