

Astyanax Benchmark Papers

William R. Elliott

from the Cave Life Bibliography Database, 10 July 2015

Note: I now have 532 citations in this database published on Astyanax cavefishes since 1936, almost 80 years. The literature has increased greatly since 1977, when Mitchell, Russell, and Elliott noted about 200 papers. Most of the recent additions are in genomics (DNA studies). The 41 papers below represent a good cross-section of important papers, but many others are important too. A complete bibliography will be published in The Astyanax Caves of Mexico, which I will publish as an AMCS Bulletin in late 2015. See graphs at the end.
